LEGISLATIVE REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND REGULATIONS
YES	Shall the amendment to Article V, Section IV, paragraph 6 of the State Constitution, agreed to by the Legislature, authorizing the Legislature to review existing and proposed administrative rules and regulations and to invalidate them or prohibit them from taking effect when those rules and regulations have been found to be contrary to legislative intent, be adopted?
NO	INTERPRETIVE STATEMENT This proposed amendment modifies the New Jersey Constitution to allow the Legislature to review existing and proposed administrative rules and regulations and to invalidate them or prohibit them from taking effect when those rules and regulations have been found to be contrary to legislative intent. To do so, either House must hold a public hearing on the invalidation or prohibition of the rule or regulation and a majority of the authorized membership of each House must vote in favor of a concurrent resolution providing for invalidation or prohibition, as the case may be, of the rule or regulation. A concurrent resolution would not be subject to a gubernatorial veto.
